

Srinivas Prasad B V
M A (English)
Assistant Professor
Surana Evening College

I am Srinivas Prasad B.V., residing in Chamarajpet, Bangalore. My professional journey is driven by a passion to contribute meaningfully to an organization's growth. I am committed to leveraging my skills and experience in a dynamic role that fosters both personal and institutional development. With a Master's degree in English Literature from Jnana Bharathi and a Bachelor's degree from Govt. First Grade College, Madhugiri, I have honed my analytical and communication skills. My educational journey, starting from Gowthama Buddha PU College to Govt. High School, Hanumanthapura, reflects consistent dedication, culminating in a diverse set of skills.

I possess a keen sense of observation and patience, coupled with compassion and grace. My effective communication skills and experience in event planning and coordination further contribute to my professional arsenal. Proficient in MS Office tools, I bring a tech-savvy edge to my work. Beyond academics, my involvement as the Student Union President and winning the Inter College Debate Competition showcase my leadership and public speaking abilities. Additionally, I have served as the Captain of the School House Discipline Committee and excelled in the Prathibha Karanji talent hunt program.

In terms of work experience, I've held roles such as an Assistant Professor at RRIT Engineering College and RR School of Architecture, along with a stint as a Lecturer in English at RJS PU & Degree College, Koramangala. I was engaged as an Assistant Professor of English and Language Lab Coordinator at RNSIT. Currently, I am working as an Assistant Professor at Surana Evening College. My academic pursuits include a project titled "Question of Obscenity in Saadat Hasan Manto's Works."

On a personal note, my name is Srinivas Prasad B.V., son of Vishwanath B., born on June 5, 1994. I am a single, Indian male with proficiency in Kannada, English, Hindi, and Telugu. I believe in the power of continuous learning and hope to bring my skills and dedication to further strengthen myself academically and professionally.

