

Awareness Program on Library E-Resources

Date: December 29, 2023

Overview:

This program aimed to educate students and faculty about the extensive collection of electronic resources available through the library, such as online journals, databases, and e-books.

Outcome:

Increased utilization of the library's digital resources, leading to improved research capabilities and access to a wider range of academic content for students and faculty.