

Field Visit to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Central Library, Bangalore University

Date: April 17, 2025

Overview:

An educational trip to a prominent university library, providing students with exposure to a vast collection of resources, library management systems, and research facilities

Outcome:

Students gained practical experience in navigating a large academic library, discovered new research resources, and understood the importance of library services for higher learning.