

ICT Training on Digii Campus

Date: October 23, 2024

Overview:

A training session focused on familiarizing students and faculty with the features and functionalities of the Digii Campus platform, likely an institutional digital portal for academic and administrative tasks.

Outcome:

Improved efficiency in accessing academic resources, submitting assignments, checking grades, and managing administrative tasks through the digital platform, leading to better overall digital engagement.