

ICT Training on Smart Board

Date: June 27, 2024

Overview:

This training program was designed to familiarize faculty and staff with the functionalities and effective utilization of smart boards in the classroom and for presentations.

Outcome:

Enhanced pedagogical practices through the integration of interactive technology, leading to more engaging and dynamic teaching-learning experiences for students. Improved digital literacy among educators.