

Orientation on Professional Course

Date: June 21, 2018

Overview: An orientation session guiding students on the various professional courses available, their career prospects, and the admission processes.

Outcome: Students gained clarity on different professional course options, enabling them to make informed decisions about their specialized academic and career pursuits.