

Role Play

Date: August 13, 2022

Overview:

An activity involving participants acting out various scenarios, often used to develop communication skills, empathy, problem-solving abilities, and understanding of different perspectives.

Outcome:

Improved interpersonal communication, enhanced empathy, and better understanding of complex situations through experiential learning.