

SDP on How to be relevant and skillful par with the Market

Date: March 28, 2024

Overview:

A Skill Development Program (SDP) designed to equip students with contemporary skills and competencies that are highly demanded by the current job market.

Outcome:

Enhanced employability of students by bridging the skill gap between academic learning and industry requirements, making them more competitive in the job market..