

Student Seminar on Water Conservation

Date: February 9, 2023

Overview:

A student-led seminar focusing on the critical issue of water scarcity, sustainable water management practices, and the importance of water conservation.

Outcome:

Raised awareness among the college community about water conservation, promoting responsible water usage and inspiring action towards environmental sustainability.