

Workshop on Right to Information

Date: April 17, 2025

Overview:

This workshop educated participants about the Right to Information (RTI) Act, its provisions, how to file an RTI application, and its significance in promoting transparency and accountability.

Outcome:

Empowered citizens with knowledge of their right to information, fostering greater transparency in governance and enabling them to hold public authorities accountable.