

Workshop on Role of Communication in Teaching

Date: March 15, 2021

Overview:

This workshop focused on the importance of effective communication skills for educators, covering verbal, non-verbal, and written communication techniques to enhance teaching delivery.

Outcome:

Improved communication skills among teachers, leading to clearer instruction, better student engagement, and a more effective learning environment.